

Norwegian Cruise Line offers Pizza 24/7 fleetwide

04/08/2011

Norwegian Cruise Line has announced it will now offer its Pizza 24/7 delivery service, currently exclusive to Norwegian Epic, throughout the fleet.

Guests can experience the same convenience they have on land while they are at sea with pizza delivery to almost anywhere on the ship, 24 hours a day.

Pizza 24/7 is now available on Norwegian Jade and Norwegian Sun - both ships, along with Norwegian Epic are sailing Europe this summer. The rest of the ships departing U.S ports are also now serving pizza 'round the clock.

The 16-inch handmade, stone baked pizzas are $5 each and toppings include mozzarella cheese and tomato sauce; pepperoni; or vegetarian with roasted peppers, mushrooms, red onions and mozzarella cheese.

In addition, Norwegian has rolled out Norwegian Epic's room service menu across the fleet to include popular breakfast items, assorted soups, salads, sandwiches, desserts, and kid's menu items.

"Our guests have deemed the 24-hour pizza delivery on board Norwegian Epic a popular addition to our innovative Freestyle Dining options," said Michael Flesch, Norwegian's senior vice president of hotel operations. "We wanted to make it easy and convenient for our guests to enjoy a delicious pizza any time on our ships, whether it's during a game of bowling, watching a movie in the Atrium or in the comfort of their stateroom."

Norwegian's room service is complimentary throughout the day except from midnight to 5 a.m. when there is a surcharge of $3.95. Guests who order only beverages or pizza delivery will not be assessed this fee.
