Sail in to the sunset this Valentine's Day

Miami 28 January 2009...For couples looking to embark on a romantic cruise this Valentine's Day, NCL Freestyle Cruising is offering sunshine escapes with special discounts to set hearts a flutter.

Amorous guests can save up to £100* per person on selected Western Caribbean and Western Mediterranean itineraries and indulge in an extraordinary Valentine's Day dinner menu in the onboard French restaurant, Le Bistro.

Romantic cocktails will be served throughout the ship, which will be decorated with heart shaped ice sculptures, and couples can slow dance the night away to a selection of love songs in the many on board bars and lounges before returning to their stateroom which will be receiving a special flower turn down.

But the romance doesn't have to end there. Couples cruising after Valentine's Day can add a little starry-eyed sparkle to their trip with romantic upgrade packages available all year round. Sparkling wine and strawberries, in-stateroom canapés, keepsake photos and a special dinner for two on NCL are just some of the treats awaiting couples on board. A deluxe package is also available which includes complimentary spa treatments and breakfast in bed.
